Here is an updated version of the $domain website which many of our East European book trade customers have been using for some time now, more or less regularly. We have just introduced certain upgrades and changes which should be interesting for you. Please remember that our website does not replace publisher websites, there would be no point in duplicating the information. Our idea is to present you with tools that might be useful in your work with individual, institutional and corporate customers. Many of the features have been introduced at specific requests from some of you. Others are still at preparatory stage and will be implemented soon.

Dream Spaces. In creating the 10th anniversary edition of Gulfshore Life's Home book, our editors had access to the best of what's happening in Southwest Florida design. In doing so, we found that designers and homeowners are breaking the mold with big, bold ideas. Out are interiors that look like model homes; in is a highly personal approach to living that includes irreverent art, unexpected layouts and architectural furnishings that reflect the owners.

Dream Spaces - Gulfshore Life

We Dream of Space takes place in the month of January 1986, leading up to the Challenger explosion. The three Thomas children have distinct voices, and experience tremendous growth throughout the story. Kelly tackles so much in this book: family drama, anger, and feeling invisible, out of place, or left behind.

We Dream of Space by Erin Entrada Kelly - Goodreads

Told in three alternating points of view, We Dream of Space is an unforgettable and thematically rich novel for middle grade readers. We Dream of Space is illustrated throughout by the author.
