As fashion editor of Harper's Bazaar and editor-in-chief of Vogue, Diana Vreeland—and her passion, charm, insouciance, and genius for style—energized and inspired the fashion world for fifty years. In this glittering autobiography she takes us around the world with her, revealing her obsession with fashion high and low—pink plastic poodles, for example—and dropping timeless sayings like, "As you know, the French like the French very much."
