The 40-Workout Strength Challenge | T Nation

What if getting strong could be easy? In a culture that tells you gain is forever associated with pain and you're supposed to go home if you don't go hard, that's a pretty off-the-wall idea. A few years ago, strength coaches Dan John, a champion discus thrower, and Pavel Tsatsouline, a former special-forces trainer, asked that question.

The Easy-Strength Workout - Experience Life

A key point of Easy Strength is doing five movements: a hinge, a pull, a push, a squat and something else. The JDL hits three out of five movements. It's a pull and a hinge for sure, but because it requires a lot more quadricep involvement than a conventional deadlift, it also can be considered a squat!
