This is an early comic book tale of a hero overcoming a physical handicap. The Pep Morgan tales in Action were much more serious in tone than the Flessel stories in More Fun Comics. In the earlier stories, Pep rarely had to take on any serious difficulties. He just went out and won games with a snap.

I decided to try something different for my upcoming medieval romance trilogy - or to return to something I did in the past. :-) Instead of having couples on the covers, I've had the covers for these three books redone with the hero alone. This often works well for my books because I write hero-focused...
