Kwayne26 reviewed Tokyo Ghost Vol. 1: Atomic Garden TP. 2 years ago This book starts off like a sci-fi action story. Where this story takes you is somewhere very different. I mean that literally as well as the characters are drawn to different lands each with a distinct visual style. Remender's...

Tokyo Ghost Vol. 1: Atomic Garden TP Reviews

Tokyo Ghost, Volume 1: Atomic Garden is not your average comic book. In fact, Tokyo Ghost is not your average...anything. Writer Rick Remender manages to tell a story that is much more than a gory exercise in technological superviolence set in a dystopian future; instead, the book makes a clear and concise statement about addiction, the media, and most of all, the power of the human heart.

TOKYO GHOST collects first story arc in ATOMIC GARDEN ...

Tokyo Ghost Volume 1 by Rick Remender is a major disappointment as far as story goes. Slow and juvenile is probably the easiest way to say it. There is no doubt a market for it but it definitely caters to the lowest common (in every sense of the word) denominator. The artwork is good and colors are very good.
